MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

The Rubinstein Club will hold its rehearsal in the ball room of the Raleigh Hotel, the initial meeting being scheduled for next Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

This club is composed of 120 women soloists of the city under the direction of Mrs. A. M. Blair, whose wide experience, thorough musical culture, and rare personality, combined with effective work on the part of the club members, has given it a high standing among the most noted organizations of the country.

The executive board announces five concerts to be given during the winter—two evening concerts, with soloists to be selected from leading New York or Boston professionals; two afternoon concerts, one of which will be a sacred concert given during Lent, and a mid-week morning recital. The organization is directed by an executive board as follows: Mrs. A. M. Blair, president; Mrs. Clarence B. Rheem, vice president; Mrs. Blanche F. Wheelwright, secretary; Mrs. Fanny Allen Gage, treasurer; Mrs. L. Yewell, librarian; Mrs. W. W. Burdette, accompanist, and Mrs. Walter Newell Weston, chairman press committee.

The opening concert of the musical season in Washington will be given next Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Columbia Theater, when Mme. Emma Calve, world renowned opera singer, will appear in "Carmen," supported by Galileo Gasparri, widely known dramatic tenor, will appear in scenes from the opera "Carmen" (Bisbet), with scenery and costumes preceded by a concert.

Mme. Calve, who will present her own tabléd version of Carmen in costume and with special scenery, has a voice of wonderful range and marvelous color. She was born at Aveyron, France, and was a pupil of Marchesi and Pugnani. She made her debut at Nice at a charity performance. Her first important appearance was at Brussels as "Marsquerite" in "Faust." Her first appearance in Paris was at the Theater Italien, where she created the role of "Blanca" in "Dobru" "Aben Hamet." A year later she was engaged at the Opera Comique, and after some successful tours in Italy, she returned to the Theater Italien in Bizet's "The Pearl Fishers."

Returning to the Opera Comique she sang the part of "Santuzza" in "Cavalleria Rusticana" for the first time in Paris. In the summer of the same year she made her first appearance at Covent Garden, London, in the same role. Since that time Mme. Calve has been famous in the musical world.

Galileo Gasparri, the dramatic tenor who is supporting Mme. Calve, is a handsome young Italian of striking physique and personality. He began his career on the stage as an actor in dramatic roles, but nine years ago he adopted the operatic stage and in that capacity has won the highest praise with great success in the principal operas of Italy, France, Russia, Austria, Greece, America, Australia, New Zealand, India, China, etc., creating in "Cavalleria" in "La Tosca," and "Pinkerton" in "Mme. Butterfly" and "Pedrito" in the opera "Cabrera" of Maestro Dupont. He will be heard in some of his favorite roles and in duets with Mme. Calve.

The programme next Friday will be as follows:
